

A bride is shown from the chest up, wearing a vibrant pink lehenga with intricate gold embroidery. She is adorned with a matching pink dupatta, a large gold maang tikka, multiple gold necklaces, and a large gold nose ring. Her eyes are closed, and she has a serene expression. Her hands are clasped in front of her, showing detailed henna designs and several gold bangles. The background is a soft-focus green field.

OH EM GEE! YOU'RE GETTING MARRIED...

CONGRATULATIONS LOVELY

You must be ecstatic, and I got to tell ya, I'm ecstatic for you. Meeting your other half is no easy task in such a multifaceted fast pace world. Not only does it enrich your life, but you're about to build a life with someone side by side, creating memories, milestones and all the good stuff a marriage SHOULD be offering.

Now that the hard part is over, the fun stuff is just around the corner, but planning a wedding can be so time consuming and stressful and I'm not the least bit surprised. Weddings are such a huge investment, so you got to make the right decisions and get back for the experiences or expectations you've put so much money into.

I know how stressful it is to plan a normal day trip, let alone AN ENTIRE WEDDING. You go girl! I applaud you.

Before you hire me, I just have to point out the reasons why I got into henna to begin with:

- 1) I love meeting people from all walks & cultures of life
- 2) Being part of joyous occasions is MY THING
- 3) I absolutely adore that art is part of my daily life
- 4) I love to DANCE and weddings is the best excuse for it

So I just gotta warn ya, people are likely to think I'm another guest, not just a wedding vendor :)

It is not only essential to me for ou to have a killer henna design with a dark stain, but I want you to have as much fun with it as possible!

I hope you have a lifetime of happy marriage and many good fortunes to come :)

- Nadine
